For Windows 7 Click on

Click on" Open Network and Sharing Center"

Click To “Manage Wireless Network”

Click to “Add” Tab

Click to “Manually create a network profile”

1. Write your "Network Name" i.e. Kasturba, Sarojini, Govind, etc…
2. Select "Security Type" WPA2-Enterprise"
3. Check Encryption Type is "AES"
4. Click to "Next"

Click to “Close”

Select and right click on your configured network name

Click on “Properties”

Select the “Security” Tab

1. Check the Security type is “WPA2-Enterprise”
2. Check the Encryptions type “AES”
3. Click “Advanced setting” Tab

1. “Check Mark” to “Specify authentication mode” & select “user or computer authentication” And click OK
2. Choose a network authentication method is “Microsoft: Protected EAP (PEAP)” and click to The” settings”

1. Uncheck to" validate server certificate"
2. select authentication method "secured password (EAP-MSCHAPv2)" and click on "configure"

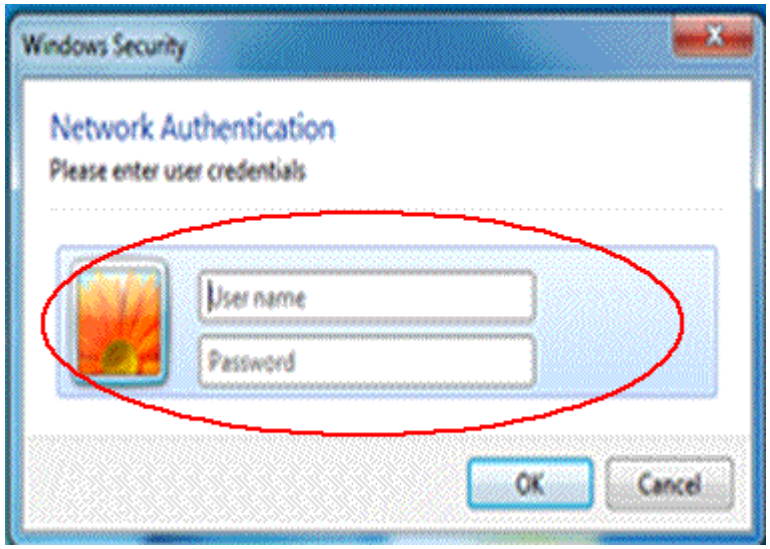
1. Uncheck to EAP-MSCHAP v2 Properties.
2. Click to OK
3. Click to OK

This Logging windows will appears



Windows Security
Network Authentication
Please enter user credentials
User name
Password
OK
Cancel