

Step 1: Go to Start and type run in search

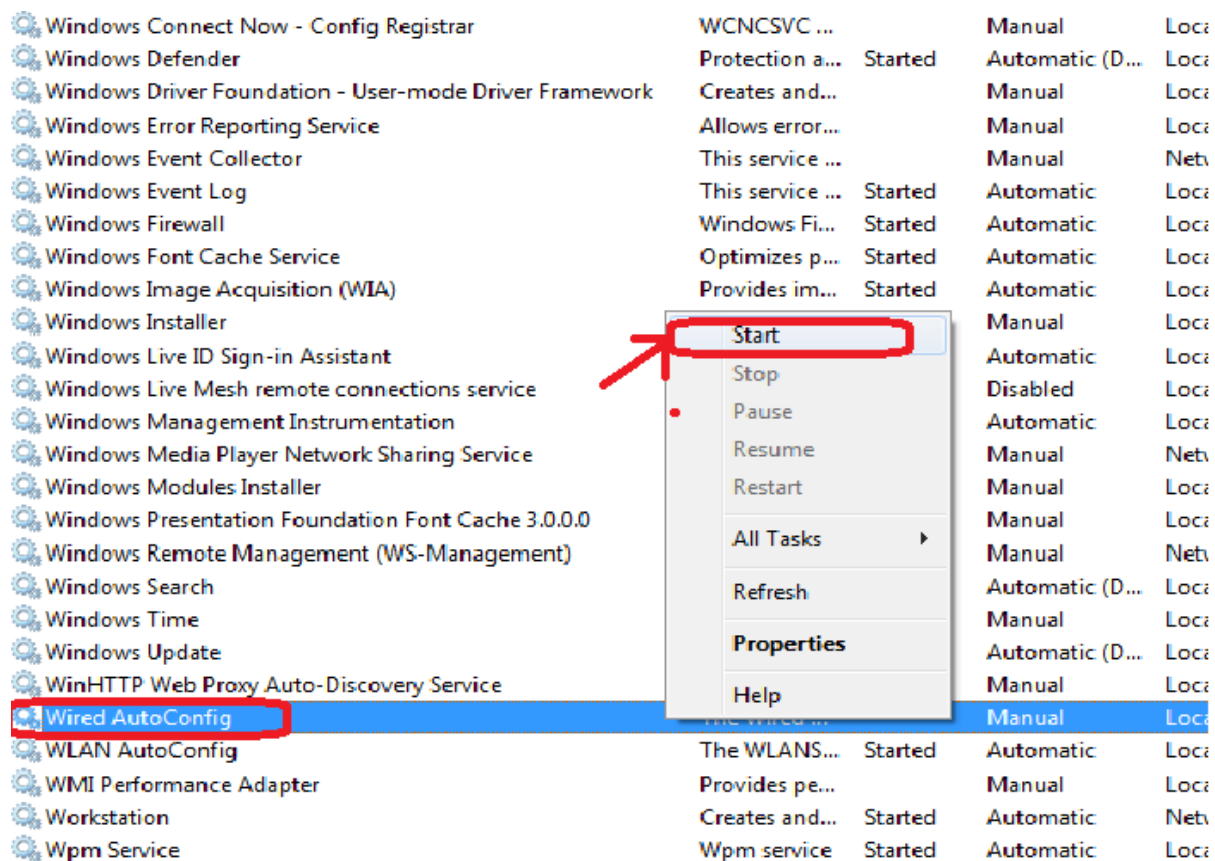

Windows 7

Step 2: Type services.msc in run command and then enter and go to standard button

Step 3: In standard button start the wired auto config services.

Step 4: Go to Control Panel and then go to Network and sharing centre and Click change adapter setting

Step 5: In change adapter setting Right Click to Local Area Connection and then go to property and then go to Authentication tab

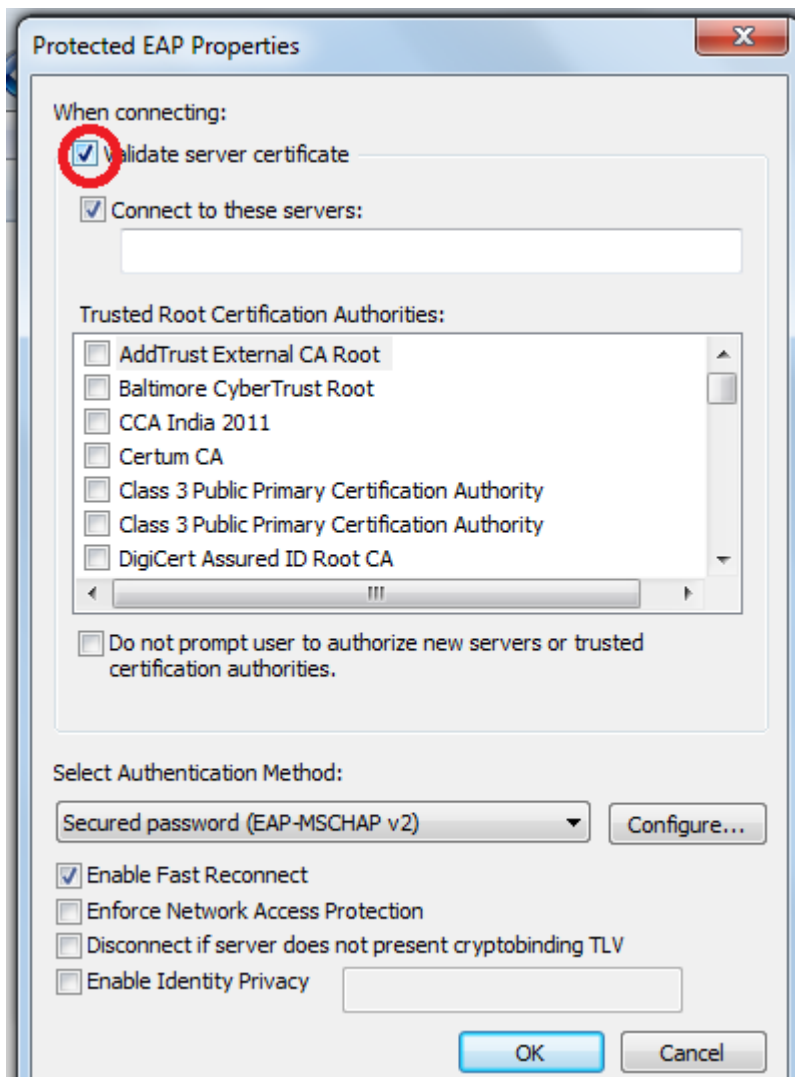

Step 6: In authentication tab enable(check) IEEE 802.1X authentication

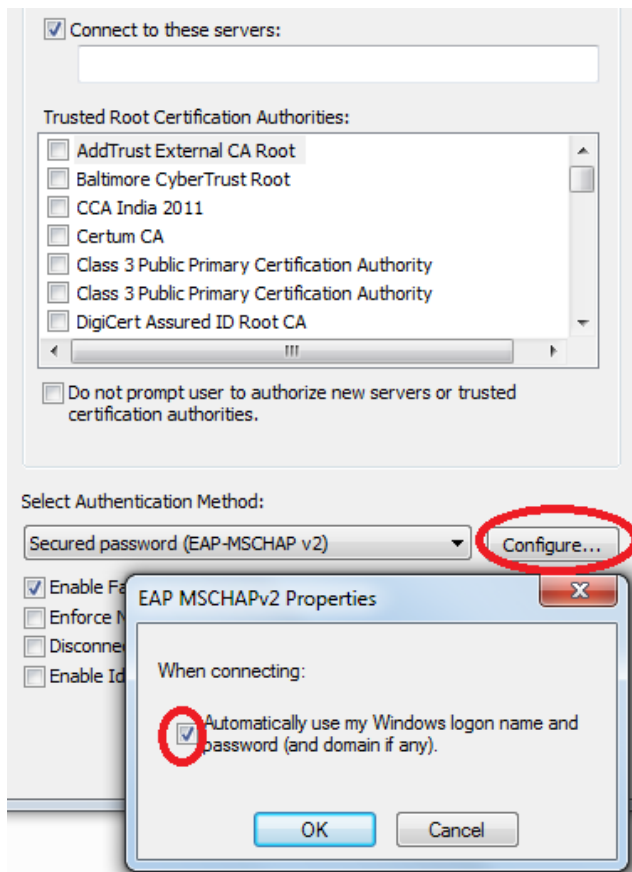

Step:7 After Enable IEEE 802.1X authentication go to setting tab

Step:8 In setting tab uncheck validate server certificate

Step 9 After that go to configure tab and then uncheck Automatically use my window logon

Step 10: then go to additional setting tab

Step 11: In additional setting tab specify authentication mode as user authentication

Step 12: then go to replace credential and type username and password and then press OK.

